"I have water, soap and give a space for lot of creativity, I definitely need a door. I need privacy." ~~Ohh~~ is says the bathroom, ~~so follows~~ the bedroom, "Ohh! I think I am done being covered as a private space. I am used to anything and everything, why is there even a wall? I am unaware.
I want to see inside & welcome who ever comes. & treat them by being what they want.
I don't want to be defined as a space, constrained by one man of huge furniture." And the kitchen ~~ferous~~ a ~~corner~~ says..

"I think I need a window, that over looks of who is coming & going. In that case I feel I am best placed soon after you enter." Some old soul:

"Ohh kid we were a huge family with a lot of individuals. everyone serving a unique purpose.

Not just within the family but also around us, we were committed as a community. To the sky, to the stars, the sun & the moon. The plants giving flowers gave a fragrance that flew through the kitchen."

"Aggi, We also have neighbors, but just that we are unaware of them. What to do everybody is busy in working. Fast life you see."

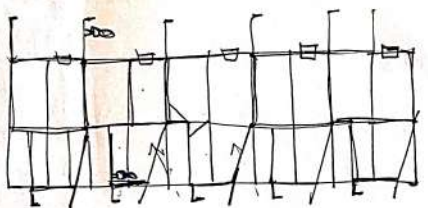

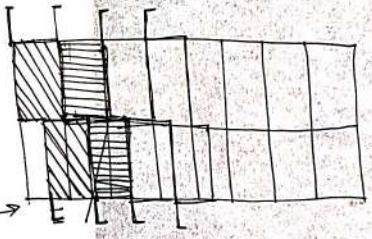

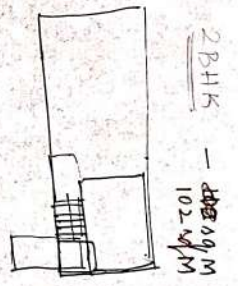

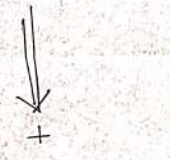

"Ohh yes dear, fast life higher ambition & flying goals. You have wings, & we will be the roots, wishing you from the ground.." says the mulla
